In Blessed Memory

Memory Book

2020 | 5781
It is a fearful thing to love
what death can touch.

A fearful thing to love,
hope, to dream: to be –
to be, and oh! to lose.

A thing for fools this, and
a holy thing,
a holy thing to love.

For
your life has lived in me,
your laugh once lifted me,
your word was gift to me.

To remember this brings painful joy.
‘Tis a human thing, love,
a holy thing,
to love
what death has touched.

— Chaim Stern

At Yizkor, our sacred hour of remembrance, we recall our loved ones who are no longer sitting beside us. We yearn to hear their voices once more, to complete an unfinished conversation, to share another meal or milestone. Even in our pain, we know that deep sadness is a reflection of deep love. Even in our pain, we know we were blessed – to have had a love so big for as long, or as unfairly short – as we did.

Our tradition very intentionally offers fixed times for communal remembrance. Each of us may call someone different to mind, but we are united in memory.

May the memories of our cherished family, friends and fellow congregants inspire us to “endow our fleeting days with abiding worth” and to make our life a blessing to those who will come after us.

It is a fearful thing to love what death can touch.
But a Holy thing, to love.
And to Remember.

— Rabbi Angela Warnick Buchdahl
To the Departed

The departed whom we now remember have entered into the peace of life eternal. They still live on earth in the acts of goodness they performed and in the hearts and lives of those who cherish their memory. May the beauty of their lives abide among us as an everlasting blessing. May the Source of Peace send peace to all who mourn and comfort all the bereaved among us.

May God console you among the mourners of Zion and Jerusalem.

remembered by Shari and Jeffrey Zuckerman
In the rising of the sun and in its going down, we remember them.

In the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter, we remember them.

In the opening buds and in the rebirth of spring, we remember them.

In the blueness of the sky and in the warmth of summer, we remember them.

In the rustling of leaves and in the beauty of autumn, we remember them.

In the beginning of the year and when it ends, we remember them.

When we are weary and in need of strength, we remember them.

When we are lost and sick at heart, we remember them.

When we have joys we yearn to share, we remember them.

So long as we live, they too shall live, for they are now part of us, as we remember them.
Remembered by the Congregation

With deep sorrow, we record the names of those who passed away October 9, 2019 – September 9, 2020 (10 Tishrei 5780 – 20 Elul 5780). Their names will be inscribed in our records and be recalled aloud on the Shabbat preceding the anniversary of death.

Yizkor

May God remember forever my dear ones . . . who have gone to their eternal rest. May they be at one with the One who is life eternal. May the beauty of their lives shine forevermore, and may my life always bring honor to their memory.

Psalm 23

Eternal God, You are my shepherd, I shall not want. You make me lie down in green pastures. You lead me beside still waters. You restore my soul. You lead me in right paths for the sake of and Your name. Even when I walk in the valley of the shadow of death, I shall fear no evil, for You are with me; with rod and staff You comfort me. and You have set a table before me in the presence of my enemies; You have anointed my head with oil, my cup overflows. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I shall dwell in the house of the Eternal God for ever.
MEMORIAL PRAYER

O God, full of compassion, Eternal Spirit of the universe, grant perfect rest under the wings of Your Presence to our loved ones who have entered eternity. Merciful God, let them find refuge forever in the shadow of Your wings, and let their souls be bound up in the bond of eternal life. The Eternal God is their inheritance. May they rest in peace, and let us say: Amen.

YMOURNER’S KADDISH

Yitgadal v’yitkadosh sh’mei rabah b’alma di v’ra chirutei, v’yamlich malchutei b’chayeichon uv’yomeichon, uv’chayei d’chol Beit Yisrael, ba’agala u’vizman kariv, v’imru: Amen.

V’hei shmei raba m’varach l’alam ul’almei almaya.

Yit’barach v’yish’tabach v’yit’pa’ar v’yit’romam v’yit’nasei, v’yit’hadar v’yit’haleh v’yit’halal shmei d’kud’shah, b’rich Hu, l’eila min kol birchata v’shirta, tush’chat v’nechemata, da’amiran b’alma, v’imru: Amen.
We sanctify Your name on earth, as we pray for the coming of Your dominion, in our own day, our own lives, and the life of all Israel. Let Your great name be blessed forever and ever. Let Your name be exalted and honored, though You are beyond all the praises we can utter, all the songs we can ever sing. O Maker of heaven and earth, Divine Parent of all beings, accept the prayers and supplications of Your people Israel.

For us, for all Israel, for all men and women, may the blessing of peace and the promise of life come true. As You make peace on high, so let peace descend on us, on all Israel, and all the world.

Let the glory of God be extolled, let God’s great name be hallowed in the world whose creation God willed. May God’s dominion soon prevail, in our own day, our own lives, and the life of all Israel, and let us say: Amen. Let God’s great name be blessed forever and ever. Let the name of the Holy One of blessing be glorified, exalted, and honored, though God is beyond all the praises, songs, and adorations that we can utter, and let us say: Amen.

For us and for all Israel, may the blessing of peace and the promise of life come true, and let us say: Amen.

May the One who causes peace to reign in the high heavens, let peace descend on us, on all Israel, and all the world, and let us say: Amen.

May the Source of peace send peace to all who mourn, and comfort all who are bereaved. Amen.
